

CURRICULUM VITAE

Dr. habil Ingrid Oswald, sociologist, born 1957

e-mail: ioswald@ipn.de

Profession

project developping/ free-lancing in sociological research and teachings

Working places

CISR (vice-director/ project developping)

at present:

Otto-von-Guericke-University Magdeburg (interim professorship micro-sociology)

Scientific interests

Migration and ethnic relations, urban and regional development, socio-cultural transformation in post-soviet societies

project leading of many international and multi-disciplinary projects on these topics

University teaching

2010-2011 University Magdeburg, Institute for Sociology

2009: University Munich, Geschwister-Scholl-Institute for Political Science

2002-2009: Humboldt University Berlin/ Institute for European Ethnology;
Institute for Urban and Regional Studies

2004-2005: Visiting professor at university Oldenburg/ Institute for Political Science

1999-2001: (DAAD) Visiting professor at State University St. Petersburg

1997-1999: University Magdeburg

1991-1996: Free University Berlin/ Institute for Eastern European Studies

Publications

About 70 publications, among them 4 monographies

For example:

2010: Jenseits der Städte. Postsozialistische Lebensweisen in ländlichen Regionen Mittel- und Osteuropas (Beyond the cities. Post-socialistic ways of life in rural regions in Central and Eastern Europe). Berlin (co-editor: E. Dittrich)

2007: Migrationssoziologie (Sociology of Migration). A University Reader. Konstanz

2007: "Industrialized Villages" in Post-Socialist Countries – Steps Towards an Integrative Research Concept. In: Heinonen, M./ Nikula, J./ Kopoteva, I./ Granberg, L. (eds.): Reflecting Transformation in Post-socialist Rural Areas. Newcastle, pp. 215-235

2004: The „public-private“ sphere in Soviet and post-Soviet society. Perception and dynamics of „public“ and „private“ in contemporary Russia. In: European Societies, Vol. 6, Nr.1, pp. 97-117 (co-author: V.Voronkov)